Sole CLM Member in Puerto Rico

San Juan, Puerto Rico – November 8, 2013 – Luis Morera has been invited to become a member of the Claims and Litigation Management Alliance (CLM), becoming its sole member in Puerto Rico. CLM is a nonpartisan alliance that is comprised of leading USA insurance companies, corporations, corporate counsel, litigation and risk managers, claims professionals, and attorneys.

Selected attorneys and law firms are extended membership by invitation only based on nominations from CLM fellows. Their main focus is to identify, promote, and further the highest standards of litigation management in pursuit of client defense.

“Morera’s 12 years of litigation experience defending retailers, shopping malls, and third party administrators/insurance carriers in general liability claims, had led him to successfully manage the firm’s Consumer Affairs Practice,” pointed out Alberto Estrella, Managing Member of Estrella LLC.

Indeed, his vast experience has allowed him to become an authority in consumer related legislation and regulatory issues to the extent that Morera participates regularly in the rule making process of the Department of Consumer Affairs in Puerto Rico.
