

Estrella, LLC Announces New United States Virgin Island Practice

San Juan, Puerto Rico – July 10, 2015 – Estrella, LLC is proud to announce that attorney Christopher Brookhart has joined the firm for the launch of a new U.S. Virgin Islands (U.S.V.I.) practice group.

Estrella, LLC will represent clients across the U.S. Virgin Islands in a diverse range of litigation, transactional and employment law matters. Our lawyers will draw upon their extensive legal knowledge to formulate comprehensive and cost-effective litigation strategies.

“For a number of years we have been handling litigation and commercial law matters in the U.S.V.I. thru local counsel. With the addition of Chris to our team, we can finally offer the same services we currently provide to our clients in Puerto Rico,” said Alberto Estrella, the firm’s Managing Member.

“We have an in-depth understanding of the complex laws and regulations that our clients face and we help them navigate each stage of the legal process. Whether a business is just launching or has established an international presence, our corporate lawyers provide clients with the information and strategies they need to ensure long-term success,” emphasized Estrella.
