

Estrella, LLC launches new Business Immigration Practice

San Juan, Puerto Rico – June 8, 2016 –Estrella, LLC is proud to announce its new Business Immigration

Practice. Clients will now be able to seek no further than the Estrella family to serve all their current immigration needs.

“The new practice serves the needs of our international clients, who wish to obtain the same level and excellence in legal services all in one place. It complements the firm’s current practices and allows our clients to handle all their needs using the latest technology and attorneys they already know and trust,” expressed Alberto Estrella, firm’s Managing Member.

“Our Immigration practice is focused primarily on handling the immigration needs of our corporate and commercial clients, assisting in their employee transfers and business development opportunities,” explained Estrella.

According to attorney Mayra C. Artiles Fonseca, Practice Director, now Estrella, LLC clients will be able to benefit from all “Business Immigration” needs such as: obtaining visas and/or work permits for employees and executives abroad, facilitating company transfers, advising future investors, and/or any other person seeking to establish business in the U.S. As always, Estrella clients can expect the use of the latest technology to facilitate their processes in these matters. Through the use of the interactive Estrella HR-Portal our clients can:

- Access their foreign national employee database
- Access their employee status for easy corroboration
- Exchange case documents and information
- Communicate directly with our attorneys
- Access reports regarding their pending immigration matters

“Our firm is always looking for ways to innovate and serve our clients. This new practice not only serves our current clients, but allows us to enter into new markets. Given our geographical and culture advantages, Estrella, LLC is uniquely positioned to service all kinds of employment immigration needs and thus complement our current firm practice areas,” expressed Artiles Fonseca.
